World University Games Gets New Logo

On 2 June 1981, the Universiade 83 Edmonton Corporation unveiled a new "logo" for the 1983 games. Designed by Mauro Cotechini and submitted as a competitor in the widely-advertised Games logo and symbol contest, the logo was chosen "for its unique, innovative design illustrating Canadian strength and excitement" in the games to be held under the auspices of the Fédération Internationale du Sport Universitaire.

The designer, Mr. Cotechini of the Edmonton-based studio of Cotechini Associates, explains the rationale of the logo: "In giving the Universiade an identification, I looked for a modern and futuristic design. I was inspired by the ribbon of victory which embodies the kinetic energy of athletic competition and forms the letter 'U' that symbolizes the University's connection to the Games. The lowercase letter 'e' represents the City of Edmonton as host city."

"The dove which symbolizes freedom, peace and brotherhood of the Games stretches across the five color bands representing the five continents. The maple leaf tells the world the Universiade is to be held in Canada."

"I am looking forward to the success of the World University Games," Mr. Cotechini also said. "If the hard work and spirit of my staff is any indication, Universiade 83 will bring out the best that Edmonton has to offer."

The logo designed by Mr. Cotechini replaces the other temporary designs that, until now, have been associated with the Games. The announcement of the Games' symbol on 2 June marks a new stage in the organization and promotion of the international athletic event. The symbol's designer will travel to Bucharest, Romania, for the 1981 Summer Universiade—his prize for submitting the winning design.

Other Universiade news

Three more appointments have been made to the organization of the Games. Robert (Bob) Steadward, of the University's Department of Physical Education, will join the Universiade 83 Edmonton Corporation as Vice-President (Accommodations). Dr. Steadward, currently on study leave in Australia, is known world-wide for his work in disabled athletics and wheelchair sports. A member of staff here since 1974, he participated actively in the organization of the XI Commonwealth Games and is equally active in the Canadian Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

C. Durban Morrow has been appointed to the position of Manager (Publicity and Promotion). A graduate of Simon Fraser University, Mr. Morrow has an extensive background in tourism marketing which admirably suits him to the task in hand. After beginning his career in the profession with CP Air, Mr. Morrow has worked for the Government of Canada in Chicago, Los Angeles and New York. His most recent appointment was as Regional Manager, Tourism Development Alberta and Northwest Territories.

The third new appointee named on 2 June is Carol Gilfillan. From 1 July 1981, she will be Program Manager (Protocol and Culture Division). A senior family and marriage counsellor with the Family Service Association in Edmonton for some thirteen years, Carol Gilfillan was most recently Special Ceremonies Officer for the Alberta 75th Anniversary Commission. □

Board Briefs

The latest regular meeting of the Board took place on Friday, 5 June. The following items were among those discussed.

- The Board approved an amended version of the Student Housing Policy (for an earlier version, see Folio, 9 April 1981). Among the amendments are statements that "surplus available accommodation" will be offered according to a set of priorities: our Spring and Summer Session students first; summer residence for students registered at other Albertan universities, and similar residence for students registered at other Canadian universities. Also, in the planning of new student housing, provision will be made for accommodating fraternity and cooperative student housing groups.

- $325,000 was authorized for altering the foyer of the Administration Building to accommodate the expansion of the student access centre.

- An Academic Concerns Committee Report on Annual Review of Quotas was approved. Contained in the report were two May 1981 amendments to the effect that twenty-five more transfer students will be accepted into the Faculty of Business Administration and Commerce, and six more into the Faculty of Nursing in 1981. The quota for admission into the Faculty of Physical Education and Recreation was suspended.

- Graduate Assistantship rates were revised upwards by 11 percent.

- The Board ratified amendments to the Board/AAS:UA Agreement as it affects Administrative and Professional Officers and Librarians. With regard to the APO agreement, the Board found difficulty with those sections referring to the award of salary increments; i.e. should they be given annually in recognition of satisfactory performance or should they be awarded for merit? The section in question (9) was not ratified pending further discussion.

■ William David (Dave) Usher joins the Board as an Alumni representative. Mr. Usher is a 1949 graduate with a BSc in Civil and incorporated in 1957), Mr Usher has many professional involvements. He has been President of the Alberta Land Surveyors; Vice-President of the Kiwanis Club of Edmonton; Chairman of the Edmonton Branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada; Vice-President of the Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta; Chairman of the Board of Stewards of McDougall United Church; President of the Alumni Association; and President of the Canadian Institute of Surveying. Currently, Mr. Usher is engineering representative for our Alumni Association. □

Professorship in Occupational Health

Shell Canada, Celanese Corporation, Nova and Petro-Can have donated to the University funds amounting to $90,000 per year for a three-year period. A matching grant from the provincial government is anticipated. These funds will enable the appointee to the Professorship to develop undergraduate and graduate programs in occupational health, initiate research into occupational health hazards, and establish at this University a unit that will provide the necessary resources and expertise to promote the health of Alberta workers. □

Faculty Women's Club

A beautiful spring afternoon and the comfort of University House combined to welcome the honorary and retired members of the Faculty Women's Club who gathered recently to enjoy tea with Barbara Horowitz, the hostess, and the executive members of the club. This annual event provides the opportunity for many women to meet their friends who were active in university affairs over past years; and to meet recent retirees and this year's executive. □

Chemical Institute Honors Ayer

William A. Ayer, Professor of Organic Chemistry at this University and member of staff here since 1958, has received the Chemical Institute of Canada's John Labatt Limited Award. The award, presented at the CIC's annual meeting, in Halifax, from 1 to 3 June, is made in recognition of outstanding achievement in the field of biochemical or organic chemical research and is related particularly to the area of biological systems. Dr. Ayer, on receiving the award (which carries with it a $1,000 honorarium and a framed scroll), gave the award address. His topic at the CIC meeting was "Some Fungal Metabolites of Biological Interest."

Dr. Ayer, who graduated from the University of New Brunswick with baccalaureate and doctoral degrees before serving as a Post-Doctoral Fellow at Harvard University, has been interested for many years in biologically-orientated problems involving alkaloids and natural products.

The citation in the CIC's program for its annual meeting (Chemistry in Canada, April 1981, p. 24) succinctly summarizes Dr. Ayer's endeavors:

"He has examined compounds from starfish which cause a swimming response in sea anemones, defensive secretion of ladybugs, and he is currently exploring the chemistry of economically important fungi of trees. This work holds great promise and he is studying the metabolites of the Stereum purpureum fungus which causes "silver leaf disease" of apple and plum trees etc., and is testing the isolated compounds for various activities.

"Also, Professor Ayer has developed procedures to culture the fungus responsible for Western Pine gall in the laboratory. From this research an interesting chlorine containing aromatic compound was isolated, which holds promise for the control of the fungi responsible for Dutch elm disease.

"His current research interests are in this area of the isolation, structure, and biological activity of compounds produced by plant disease-causing fungi. He has published some 90 research papers."

The Chemical Institute of Canada previously honored Dr. Ayer with the Merck Sharpe and Dohme Lecture Award. A colleague of his, R.B. Jordan, was elected a Fellow of the CIC at the same meeting in Halifax. □

This Week's Quote

"We feel the awards themselves should be tokens, and not substantial monetary or similar rewards, since our merit increment structure will surely have already rewarded our excellent teachers with money and promotion to their hearts' content."

Source: "A Proposal to Institute Awards for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching at the University of Alberta" submitted to GFC by the Committee for the Improvement of Teaching and Learning. When questioned on this statement by members of the GFC Executive Committee, Gary Kelly (CITL's Chairman) suggested that there was room for irony in such a preliminary report. □

New Dean of Nursing Appointed

Jannetta MacPhail has been named the University's new Dean of Nursing. The appointment of Dr. MacPhail to a five-year term beginning a year from now, in July 1982, was made at the meeting of the Governors on Friday, 5 June.

Currently Professor and Dean at the Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing in Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. MacPhail will bring with her a welter of experience at all levels of the nursing profession. A native of Renfrew, Ontario, she has been a staff nurse at Victoria Hospital in London, Ontario; a supervisor and maternity instructor in the School of Nursing at the Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital; a lecturer and coordinator, maternal and child nursing, at the University of Toronto

School of Nursing; and, along with her other current positions, is Administrative Associate at Case Western Reserve's School of Nursing in Cleveland.

Dr. MacPhail earned a Bachelor of Science degree at Columbia University, a Master of Science degree in Nursing at Wayne State University in Detroit, and a doctorate in the administration of higher education at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

A consultant to a number of institutions both in Canada and the United States, she has also published in such professional journals as the American Journal of Nursing, the Journal of Nursing Administration, the Canadian Nurse and Nurse Educator. □

Printing Services Operations

There are certain developments and activities at Printing Services which may be of interest to the campus community at large. Prior to a formal information publication being produced, it was felt that a preliminary summary should be compiled and circulated at this time.

Reprographics

The acceptance of the University's policy of offering a coordinated photocopying option has proved beneficial to those Departments who have made use of this advisory service. The accumulation of data to date indicates that the saving to the University is in the range of $12,000 per month. This cost saving calculation is based upon the standard per copy consumables cost. The feedback that has been provided by the users of the Canon 80 photocopiers shows that the actual per copy cost averages 46 percent less than that used in the initial cost comparison on the installation of the equipment. The capital allocation for the expansion of this program is limited this year to providing this service to those Departments who have a confirmed position on the waiting list. For further information, contact Earl Olsen at 432-4246.

Duplicating Program

To reflect the increase in operating and materials costs, and a change in operating procedures, the Duplicating Program pricing formula has been adjusted as of 11 May 1981.

The new all inclusive cost pricing structure is 10 cents per original and 2 cents per copy (including collating and stapling). Compared to the previous pricing of 25 cents per original and 1.5 cents per copy, all copies under 30 per original will be cheaper, and over 30 copies per original will be more expensive. This adjustment reflects the change in operating procedures in offering a more comprehensive service. Additional satellite operations are in existence and being planned, to satisfy the

Departmental Chair Appointments

Assorted appointments continue to be made as another academic year draws nigh. Three recent appointments are those of Albert Nedd as Chairman of the Department of Organizational Analysis; Clive Padfield as Chairman of the Department of Movement Education; and Garry Smith as Chairman of the Department of Athletic Services.

The time frame for Drs. Nedd and Padfield is three years; Dr. Smith's appointment is for a four-year period.

Dr. Nedd's initial appointment The University of Alberta and occurred in 1970, at which time he was an Associate Professor. He achieved the rank of Professor in 1976. The possessor of a PhD from Cornell University, Dr. Nedd's research interests take in the structure and dynamics of complex organizations and cross-cultural explorations of individual and organizational behavior. In 1976-77, he was Visiting Professor of Industrial Relations at the University of Auckland.

Dr. Padfield is a graduate of The University of Alberta and of the University of Southern California. He received his PhD from the latter institution in 1979. An assistant Professor of Movement Education from 1976-80 when he was appointed Associate Professor, Dr. Padfield's teaching experience includes Creative Dance; Educational Gymnastics; Creative Dance for Young Children; and Advanced Creative Dance, Gymnastics and Games. He is currently Secretary of the Canadian Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Dr. Smith took his university education at The Universities of Alberta and Western Ontario, gaining a PhD from Alberta in 1974. He acquired teaching and coaching experience at the Universities of New Brunswick and Western Ontario and, of course, The University of Alberta. Sport in Canadian Society, The Sociology of Sport, Introductory Football, and Introductory Basketball are among the courses taught by Dr. Smith since his appointment to The University of Alberta in 1972.

He helped coach varsity football from 1971-75 and was Head Coach of the varsity basketball team from 1976-79. □ need for a decentralized and faster turn-around service.

The most recent addition to these satellite operations is located in 114 Civil-Electrical Engineering Building. In addition to the service offered under the Duplicating Program at this location, a "help yourself walkup" service is available at 5 cents per copy, which includes reduction, collating, and hand stapling facilities. For further information, contact Walter Wilson at 432-4246.

Authorization has been given for the operation of a pilot project in the fall of 1981 at this particular satellite location which is designed to investigate the viability of a distributed information service. An IBM 6670 machine will be installed that provides a common link for data processing and word processing output. The unit also serves as a text processor, a communications device, and a convenience copier. During this trial period, we hope to determine the usage pattern and acceptance of such services and charge rates being offered. For further information, contact Len Young at 432-4246.

Publications Production System

In June 1981, there will be installed a publications production system to operate in conjunction with the APS-5 phototypesetter. This sophisticated text formatting system is intended to be integrated with the other facilities offered by the University. In anticipation of

Letters

■ I would like to add these views to those of J.W. Osborn (Folio, 14 May 1981) in which he observes the importance of a student "learning to learn." Current research of an applied nature is being successfully brought to bear on overcoming problems that can impede effective studying (e.g., Brown, et al., 1981).* A major corporation has developed a computer-based course entitled "Learning to Learn" to teach members of the business world to learn more effectively. In light of declining numbers of students in North America and the swing to more education as we move to a service-oriented society, perhaps a "learning to learn" course would be highly beneficial for the University. The combination of research knowledge being accumulated with the technology of computer-based instruction makes the creation and individualized delivery of such a course possible.

Jay Bishop and Lynne Baker, Department of Educational Psychology, delivered a paper on 4 June entitled "Play in theory and practice: Its uses and abuses," at the national conference of the Canadian Guidance and Counselling Association in Calgary, Alberta.

M.A. Price, Department of Animal Science, was the beef specialist in a team retained by Deloitte Haskins and Sells Associates (Management Consultants) on behalf of the Province of Gangweon-Do (Alberta's sister province in Korea), to help them in a Livestock Development Project. The team's task was to study the Province and assess its suitability for beef and dairy production, make estimates of the number of cattle it would support and to outline appropriate management techniques.

Dave Reid, who has been the Vehicle Fleet Supervisor at the Vehicle Pool since May, 1971, will retire on 3 July. For the past ten years, Mr. Reid has become well known to staff who have needed to use University vehicles. An Open House will be held in the afternoon of 25 June, both to wish Mr. Reid a "Happy Retirement" and to view the Vehicle Pool's facilities at the Edmonton Research Station. Coffee and doughnuts will be available.

At the 25 May meeting of General Faculties Council, it was announced that H.A. Quinney, Faculty of Physical Education and Recreation, will replace G. Glassford as an elected member of Council. Dr. Glassford will become Dean of the Faculty on 1 July and, at the same time, an ex-officio member of Council.

Research Fellowships in

Human Nutrition

The Human Nutrition Research Council of Ontario is a nonprofit organization with the objective of improving knowledge and practice of human nutrition. Funded with one million dollars from the Provincial Lottery and aided by $500,000 start-up funds from the Ontario Ministry of Health, the Council has already awarded some $300,000 in grants for research in human nutrition.

A limited number of Fellowships are now offered to highly qualified candidates for full-time training in nutrition research. These Fellowships, which are tenable in Ontario, are available to Canadian citizens or permanent residents in Canada. Candidates must hold a MD, DDS, DVM or PhD degree.

Additional details and application forms may be obtained from Dr. T. Keith Murray, Executive Director, Human Nutrition Research Council of Ontario, PO Box 38, Stittsville, Ontario, K0A 3G0. (613) 836-1125.

Research Grants

Mellon Program in Chinese Studies

The Mellon Program in Chinese Studies, sponsored by the American Council of Learned Societies and the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, is designed to serve the needs of younger China scholars and to enhance opportunities for collaboration with scholars in the People's Republic of China. The program is funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and is open to all citizens and permanent residents of the United States and Canada.

Research and Study Fellowships

With a value of US $17,000 p.a., these Fellowships may be used for expanding on work already contained in a dissertation and for acquiring new methodological skills. Generally, candidates should be no further distant than five years from receiving their doctorates. Applications should be submitted no later than 1 December 1981 and should have the PhD in hand by 30 June 1982.

Language Training Fellowships

With similar regulations to the Fellowships named above, these are for post-doctoral training and allow the successful candidates one year of language training in East Asia at US $17,000.

Summer Language Grants

Grants of about US $4,000 will be offered for intensive summer training for China scholars at mid-career or more advanced levels.

Travel Grants

These will be offered to scholars wishing to attend appropriate conferences in the People's Republic of China. They will also be made available for Chinese scholars for travel to similar congresses in North America.

Applications for travel grants should be sent to J.H. Parker of the ACLS. Dr. Parker requires the usual information. Awards will cover no more than the basic direct air fare. The deadlines are as follows: For conferences from December to February, 1 October; for conferences from March to May, 1 January; June to August, 1 April; September to November, 1 July.

General Information

For information concerning the above Fellowships and Grants, please write to the Office of Fellowships and Grants, ACLS, 800 Third Avenue, New York, NY, USA 10022.
